the bill.

Several members declared that they are extremely tited of the course of interference pursued by the senate and from the stand taken. It looks as if there is to be a recall bill at all, it will be a bill passed by the house.

Final action probably will not be taken until the senate bill is disposed of, which probably will not be for another week.

"Fixing Up" Attorney General.

The bill "fixing up attorney general George Purdy Bullard has passed the senste and will likely pass the blouse and soon become a law. The office of attorney general is not an especially lucrative one in and of itself. The official himself general general with that is only a starter under the generous terms of the menter bill. The bill provides for an assistant whose sole dutes shall be to appear before the corporation commission and who shall receive $2500 a year, the same as the amougt paid his chief. Then there is a law clerk at $1800, a stenographer and other clerks office expenses and so forth, all of which bring the amount close to $10,000.

Mr. Bullard soons the use of the capitol building and has asked the state to pay refit for his office downtown. This rental with some additional expense, is placed in the bill, at $1800 a year.

RANDOLPH DENIES APPEALING TO U. S.

Tucson, Ariz., April 13.—Demands have been made upon the state of Sonora for May Reelect Him During troops to protect the Southern Pacific lines in that state. Night before last, one train was fired into and passengers struck, and another, operating in a different direction, ran into a bridge burned by rebels and was wrecked, with heavy loss of life.

The officials of the road have not applied to the United States for troops, however, according to statements today. Said Epes Randolph, president and general manager of these lines, today'

"The statement contained in The El Paso Herald of April 12, to the effect that the Southern Pacific company of Mexico has asked Washington for United States troops to protect its property in Mexico is entirely without foundation.'

The report perhaps originated from the fact that superintendent E. N. Brown, of the Sonora division of the road, made a demand upon the governor of Sonora for Mexican troops to give the road ample protection. In a message to the general offices here, the superintendent reported his action as follows:

"I have wired the governor to give us soldiers from Guaymas and have also called on the captain at this point to see if he can give us soldiers to go out with the wrecker."
